

October 2023

Globegarden Announces the Catalog for Early Years Academy for the Upcoming Year

Zurich, 25.10.2023 - Globegarden, a leading provider of childcare facilities in Switzerland, is pleased to announce the upcoming launch of their education catalog for the Early Childhood Education Academy. This catalog, set to be released in October, features a wide range of training and professional development offerings dedicated to educators and professionals in the field of early years education.

Globegarden's Early Childhood Education Academy is an educational program built on sound pedagogical principles and the proven success of globegarden's own early childhood education curriculum. With a focus on high-quality education and fostering early childhood development, the Academy offers a wide array of training and workshops tailored specifically to the needs of educators and caregivers.

The education catalog for the upcoming year 2024 will showcase a wealth of training opportunities centered around various aspects of early years education, including:

Globegarden Early Years Curriculum: This early years curriculum has been carefully crafted to promote the individual needs and strengths of each child while creating an inspiring learning environment.

Pedagogical Excellence: Training sessions will be led by qualified experts who are professionals in their field, delivering the latest educational insights and best practices.

Innovative Learning Methods: Academy participants will benefit from modern teaching methods and technologies that contribute to taking early childhood education to the next level.

Globegarden's Early Years Academy aims to support educators and professionals in the field of early childhood education, providing them with the tools and knowledge they need to ensure the best educational opportunities for children.

About globegarden: Globegarden is a leading provider of childcare facilities in Switzerland, dedicated to promoting early childhood education and development, as well as enhancing the work-life balance for families. With years of experience and a commitment to high-quality standards, globegarden is a leader in childcare and education.

For more information about globegarden's Early Years Academy and the upcoming education catalog, please visit the official website: www.globegarden.ch.